BLACK TIE BOXING

Bob Sanders looks on as the referee announces the judges' decision.

On Friday night the Club was again bursting at the seams with members and guests for the ever popular Black Tie Boxing. The event goes from strength to strength. Seven keenly contested amateur bouts were held in front of an enthusiastic audience.

Among the highlights were

- the 75 kg class where Adam Cranfield filled a vacancy and fought two four-round bouts in a row, winning both;
- the new lighting and set up for the boxing ring gave a greater view to even more guests

- the always entertaining committeeman and MC, Andrew Coorey, opened the event with another comic flourish;
- the top draw food of Simon Flanders and his kitchen crew; and the overall smooth management from Dennis, Renata and the team.
- the well managed sport from Arthur Tunstall and the NSW

Amateur Boxing Association including the judging, refereeing and medical officials

Black Tie Boxing remains the club's best supported event and the move to a three times per year format now seems certain as more and more members choose to use this night to showcase the club and to entertain their friends and business connections.

Keep an eye out for an event which the club is planning for October this year.

ANYONE FOR CRICKET - 1ST ASHES TEST - BRISBANE

It's time to dust off the old cricket pads and start knocking in the new willow. Well not quite, but if you fancy the cricket and would like to see the Aussies exact revenge on the Poms by regaining the Ashes, here is your chance. Exclusively to Tattersalls we have a fantastic prize up for grabs. The winner of the raffle will be entitled to:

- 2 tickets to the 1st and 2nd day of the opening test to be held in Brisbane on 23rd/24th November 2006
- Return airfares for 2 people travelling economy class.
- 3 night's twin share accommodation for 2 in the 4^{1/2} star Chifley at Lennons, Brisbane, checking in 22nd November 2006.
- 2 tickets to the Brisbane Test Match function with guest speakers, dinner and drinks included.

Tickets are on sale now and are available from the office, AD and Bar at a cost of $20 each or 6 for $100. Contact Mark Mitchell on 9263 9201 or email markmitchell@tattersallsclub.org for ticket sales and information. This prize is too good to miss and the sale of tickets will close on 23rd June at 8pm. The prize will be drawn at 8.30pm in the Members Bar.

Passing of the yellow shirt. Boardriders AGM – Peter Werner, Ken (Kahuna) Glover, Ben Dillon and Tim Maunsell.

BOARDRIDERS' AGM AND AWARDS EVENING

Ben Dillon gains the Yellow T-Shirt Leading Surfer Award at Tatts Boardriders "Black-Tie and Boardshorts" Awards Night.

At the April Tattersalls Boardriders AGM and presentation night, master surfer Ben Dillon was awarded the coveted Leading Surfer Award, previously held by hotshot Tim Maunsell. Tim has surfed well this past year, but has been preoccupied during our surfing expeditions, looking after his tearaway sons. Ben has excelled in a variety of surfing conditions, most notably at the March Bendalong weekend, when he ripped in to some sizeable right handers at Back Beach Bendalong.

The AGM held in the club Brassiere, was eventful, in that a renegade "Gang of Seven" led by big wave exponent Marty Dillon, orchestrated a planned coup against the incumbent executive. This move soon proved to be folly, as their support quickly evaporated during the election process. The Kahuna, with moral support from our patron Renata, was re-elected for 2006, along with the Vice Kahuna...Peter (Country Road) Werner. Marty Dillon has now promised to stick to big wave riding, and has vowed to reduce greatly, the vast quantity of vitriolic Emails he generates each week.

In addition, two new executive positions were created and filled. Firstly, a Director of Water Safety was deemed necessary, given the past mishaps experienced by members, many of which are associated with the Dugong, and his reckless abandon. George Clapham was elected to this position, and already has flagged some controls, together with his aim to broaden the terms of reference, to include safe drinking and safe sex for the members. Secondly, the position of Director of Event Planning and Good Times was filled by a natural for the job, Luke Morgan, who also has big things planned for the coming year.

During the evening, a Peter Thiel framed picture, taken by the master snapper, was presented to Glenn and Jenny Atkins, in recognition for the organisation of the past three Bendalong weekends, and always enjoyed immensely by the participants and their families. This photograph was straight from Steelmans recent successful exhibition, and will eventually have pride of place in the Atkins Bendalong retreat.

The other awards presented during the evening were.

Best and Most Destructive Wipe-out.....Peter Werner (photographic evidence, taken by our resident water cameraman...Grant Peters, now hangs in the club)

Gutsy Surfer Award...Marty Dillon (at Cronulla during those April monsters, when Marty broke his board in half...the same surfboard the Dugong had negotiated to buy)

Worst Email...David Benn...For his inclusion of Renata's good name in a derogatory exchange.

You Should Have Been Here Yesterday Award ...Glenn Atkins and Luke Morgan jointly, for their smug attempts, including mass distribution of their holiday snaps, after their return from the Maldives.

Talk Yourself Up AwardA few contenders here, but none in the class of the master....Shaun (Hollywood) Clyne. This award has now been renamed in his honour.

Best Entertainment.... Glenn Atkins and Peter Werner...for their after dinner entertainment at Gerringong and Bendalong.

So it was a good night, in good humour, and enjoyed by the participants and their partners. Many thanks to the Tatts staff, Renata, Peter, Ashok who were dressed to the theme, and contributed greatly to a fun night.

All work and no play is a waste of a superb suit jacket

Notice this: the world has awoken to the Suit Jacket as a tasty thing to wear with casual shoes and trousers.

At an up-market Restaurant on a Saturday Night, the zippered blouson is looking a bit out of step nowadays.

On a relaxed occasion, an unconstructed cotton or linen jacket looks fine with, say, casual linen trousers.

And your beautifully tailored suit jacket can look equally impressive worn with jeans at a Sunday luncheon as it does playing the boardroom role.

The executive suit is your major clothing investment. It's a nice feeling to make the jacket work a little harder for its living.

WORLD CHAMPION BEERS

Come along and raise your glass to the taste of champion prize winning beers. Australia has had some great results in the recently held Beer Olympics and Australian International Beer Awards 2006 and here's your chance to drink the beer of Champions.

The Beers will be priced at $2.50 till they are all gone. And once again Cocktails and Sparkling Wine will be available for your lady friends as will an assortment of fine finger food. Member's entry is free, $10 for all other guests.

AD SKIN ASSESSMENTS

I'm pleased to report that over two days 91 members were medically assessed for skin cancers. The process was well received and appreciated by all members. Please note that next month I will be advertising full blood assessments. Blood sugar levels and cholesterol levels are critical for health maintenance.
